Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path... Psalm 119

COLT by hannah garrity
inspired by luke 19:28-40 |
acrylic on canvas
Let go of whom I thought I should be.

It was breezy that day, and the clouds were nowhere to be seen. I had just finished feeding with my mama. Sarah tied me back to the post beside the house.

As she walked away, two women arrived and began to untie me. Quickly, Sarah wheeled around saying, “Why are you untying the colt?” The disciples replied,
“The Lord needs it.”

The Lord? My mind raced. I am not worthy of such an appointment. Sarah, don’t let them take me! I haven’t had enough practice. I will falter. I will fail. I am still not able to do all of the work that mama does.
The Lord will need the best. There must be some mistake.

Yet, Sarah did not argue. My rope was held by the taller disciple. Her cloak hung open, waving in the breeze. We walked a short distance before I saw the group. Who is the Lord? No one was distinguished by their attire. Which one is the Lord?

Suddenly, others in the group put their cloaks on my back. A man looked into my eyes. This must be the Lord. I must be ready. I saw the holiness of Jesus in his eyes. He climbed onto my back with the help of his disciples. I felt the majesty of Jesus in his gentleness. I heard the royalty of Jesus in his kind words as I ferried him toward Jerusalem.

Sarah and mama stood amazed as we journeyed past my home. It did not matter that I was not ready. It mattered that I arrived to do the work.

Cultivate whom God needs me to be.

Presbyterian Women Yard Sale

Thank you again for your support of the PW Yard Sale last week. It was very successful and we earned over $2,000 in support of the renovations in the ESL/GED area and upgrades in the Pre-School area. If you still have monies to donate, please be sure they are marked "PW Yard Sale."

Preschool Happenings

Hello everyone,
There are a couple of things I wanted to let you know about.
First, I am sending home the wildflowers the students planted last month. As I believe we are probably beyond any chance of frost (hopefully), they can be planted outside in a sunny spot. The cup they are in is biodegradable, so you can just dig a hole and drop the whole thing in the ground. Hopefully, they will do well and the kids can watch them grow and flower over the summer months.

Second, we have some parents of a student in the MWF class who have some tree seedlings (mostly Douglas Firs) that they are willing to give to the children in celebration of Earth Day. However, I don't want to send them home unless you have a spot to plant them. If you are interested in getting a tree seedling, please email me back to let me know by Wednesday of this week. We will distribute them later this week. Thank you to the Pangle family!

Our chicks are really growing and will be going to their permanent home at the end of the week. We've also been watching some bullfrog tadpoles since last week. They will be returned to their pond tomorrow afternoon.

Please remember this Friday is our last day before the Easter break. Preschool will be closed from Monday, April 15th thru Monday, April 22nd. We wish you all a Happy Easter and hope you have a great spring break!

Ms. Stephanie

April Collection

We'll be collecting for Response during April. They need liquid multi-purpose cleaner, bottled water, canned pasta, and disinfection wipes and spray. Please help us help those in need. Thank you!

News From The Nursery!

As we prepare for Easter I want to share some special activities planned for the children to celebrate His life and resurrection.

*Palm Sunday ~ Hosanna to the King!
We are remembering Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem with fun crafts and a parade at the beginning of worship service.

*Easter Sunday ~ Jesus has risen and we are celebrating! Bring your children for special crafts in Sunday School and our annual Easter Egg Hunt after Children's Moment.

The nursery could use a few supplies for our upcoming crafts. We are in need of markers, kids and adult scissors, Elmer's liquid glue and glue sticks, and Easter stickers. I hope all the children will be able to join us! ~ Jessica Jones

New Member

Our new member, Gretchen Smith-Klainer, was born on a very cold January 30th in Barron, Wisconsin. She was the youngest of six children of Ella and Dan Smith. In 1972 she married Ray Snyder in Anchorage, Alaska. They had one son, Daniel John Smith, who passed away in October 2012. After being widowed, Gretchen married Herman Klainer in May 1996. Gretchen is an accomplished musician and has written several compositions. She is also a published writer. Her memoir book, "Cricket and the Northern Lights" captures her adventurous spirit with life in the challenging wilds of Alaska. She enjoys entertaining children of all ages with various musical instruments. Please warmly welcome Gretchen to her new WPC family!
