Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path... Psalm 119

ANOINTED by lauren
 wright pittman inspired by john
 12:1-8 | acrylic & ink on canvas
 When I was little, I would run around my grandparents' yard
 barefoot and all of the residue from my adventures would stick to the bottoms of my feet until they almost became one with the ground. I would come inside, and my grandmother would call me to the bathroom so she could wipe my feet off with a warm washrag. I loved the feeling of the warm water against my feet, the texture of the washrag scratching away

 the grime of the day, and the hands of my grandmother lovingly squeezing my feet.

When I was preparing to paint this image, I propped my phone up against a wall, started recording, and knelt down on the ground pretending
 I was washing Jesus' feet. My dog Rumi came over, and I began to pretend wash her paws. I called to my husband, asking if he'd lend his feet to the scene. I said to him, "But please don't take your shoes off." I didn't want to experience his feet that close to my face; after all it was winter and feet tend to be a little more ripe after being in wooly socks all day. I began to rub my hair over his booted feet and I felt this profound sense of vulnerability and discomfort. I wasn't even willing to fake wash my husband's bare feet. The amount of love it took to do this act willingly seems astronomical to me. I then asked my husband to take his shoes off. As I rubbed my hair on his feet I felt like crying.

This is the posture that Jesus calls all of us into; a profoundly uncomfortable, shockingly reverent position; coming face to face, intimately engaging with the residue of Christ's footsteps to smell and almost taste the journey of Christ.

Minutes from the Feb 24 PM Meeting

Jerry Germroth opened the meeting with prayer at 8:30 a.m. Breakfast was prepared in a team effort. The sausage, scrambled eggs, pancakes, gravy, and fruit cocktail were delicious. We had 15 people in attendance, 12 men and 3 women.

Gary Yew presented a devotion called Carl's garden which demonstrated what can happen when we truly love our enemies.

The minutes of the January 27, 2019 meeting were approved as distributed.

The Treasurer's Report was approved; the current balance is $10,314.05 with the addition of today's $125.75.

Old Business:

The next Tenderloin Dinner is planned for April 12, 2019. It was suggested that the children's menu be macaroni and cheese and applesauce. The PW yard sale is scheduled for April 6th.

Jerry Germroth reported that he has arranged to have the gate for the inside stairway in the fellowship hall made. The design will mimic the existing railing with accommodation made to fill in the gap created by the lower curve. The cost is approximately $1,000.00. This does not include installation which Hal Ladehoff has offered to cover.

Mike Ashley has repaired the warmer in the kitchen. Hooray and thanks to Mike!

The defibrillator has been installed with thanks to Gary Yew. Robin Tusing has agreed to offer a course in its use for 6-8 people.

The construction of the Education Classroom is progressing. The building permit has been obtained. Wall studding has been completed. The main HVAC duct has been installed. Electric lights and outlets have been installed and inspected.

Next, the sheet rock will be installed by a contractor, the doors will be installed (in-house), the drop ceiling installed, paint and flooring.

There are now 70 + students in 3 classes, 1 GED and 2 ESL. They meet 3 times a week. They are eager to help with the renovation given the opportunity.

New Business:

The $7,000.00 pledged by the men of the church has been spent. Fund raising to provide the remainder as well as the air conditioner for the pre-school and to reduce the principal on our loan for the addition will begin next Sunday. The Men of the Church are planning a spaghetti dinner to raise funds. The date is yet to be determined.

The men of the church will prepare Easter Sunday breakfast on April 21st to follow the sunrise service.

The men of the church (i.e. John Coleman and Carl Nelson) will prepare soup for the Lenten luncheons at Woodstock UMC on April 16th.

The senior luncheon for members over the age of 80 will be held on Tuesday, May 21st in the fellowship hall.

Duane May will lead devotions for our March 24th gathering, and Jim Carter for our April 28th gathering.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Ray Powell and adjourned at 9:40 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Tony R. Wilson/jmw

Easter Lilies

You may give a lily, or you may make a monetary contribution to the Building Fund. You may choose to do both! The names of those we honor or remember will appear in the Weekly Wellspring on Easter Sunday. For lilies, please make check payable to Brigitte Huffman. Orders must be placed by Wednesday, April 17th!

News From The Nursery!

As we prepare for Easter I want to share some special activities planned for the children to celebrate His life and resurrection.

4/7/19 ~ We will take a look at all the events coming up in Holy Week and have a special snack like Jesus and the Disciples had at the Last Supper.

Palm Sunday ~ Hosanna to the King! We are remembering Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem with fun crafts and a parade at the beginning of worship service.

Easter Sunday ~ Jesus has risen and we are celebrating! Bring your children for special crafts in Sunday School and our annual Easter Egg Hunt after Children's Moment.

The nursery could use a few supplies for our upcoming crafts. We are in need of markers, kids and adult scissors, Elmer's liquid glue and glue sticks, and Easter stickers. I hope all the children will be able to join us! ~ Jessica Jones

LunchTime-Out

After a winter break, LunchTime-Out resumes on Thursday, April 11th. All are welcome to dine at 11:30 a.m. at the Woodstock Café & Shoppes. Please contact Pat Ladehoff (459-9326 or spfl@shentel.net) by Wed. the 10th, if you plan to attend. Hope to see you Thursday!

April Collection

We'll be collecting for Response during April. They need liquid multi-purpose cleaner, bottled water, canned pasta, and disinfection wipes and spray. Please help us help those in need. Thank you
