Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path... Psalm 119

February is a month that we dedicate to the celebration of Love...Already we are surrounded by pink and red hearts, chocolates and bouquets of roses...The followers of Christ have a slightly different perspective on the matter of love, of course. We equate love not with romance, but with respect, value, honor and justice. For us, love is not emotion, but action. We are, as a community, continually striving to be better at being loving. Loving ourselves, one another, and our God more fully will always be a goal. The starting place to loving more, I believe, is to KNOW more. To show a curiosity, an interest, in another is to show them that you honor, respect, and value them. Take the time to look someone in the eye, and truly listen to what they have to say. Ask questions and remain open to the answers. Show some interest in learning about what excites them... God’s love was made fully known in God’s presence – perhaps ours shall be too.

Communion

1 Corinthians 12 tells us that there are a variety of gifts the Spirit blesses each of us with; to each is given a gift to be used for the common good.

Louise and Connee Garman have blessed this congregation for more than 15 years with their gift of preparing the sacrament of Communion each month. The Worship Ministry Team and all of us at WPC are grateful that both accepted God's call to serve so generously.

Now God is calling one or more of you to share your time and talents in helping to prepare communion. If you are interested in Assisting Barbara Simons in preparing communion, please let Morgan Saeler know (morgansaeler@gmail.com).

Thank you!

Holy Communion

Today we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion. All believers are welcome to the table of Grace, to receive the gifts of God.

Adult Sunday School

Join us next week as the Adult Sunday School Class begins a 2-week study on Appreciating Spiritual Gifts. The first session explores what the Bible says about spiritual gifts and some common misperceptions. The second session explores ways of discovering our spiritual gifts. See you next week in the Parlor at 9:45!

VALENTINE CARE PACKAGES

We are asking for donations of individually wrapped snacks, candy, cookies, popcorn and packets of hot chocolate for Valentine Care Packages. As of now we have 2 boxes to fill. Anna Everhart, who attends the New York School of Interior Design, and Ashley Everhart who attends Fordham University. If you know of anyone, who is part of our church family, and is in the military or in under/post graduate program and think they would like to receive a box, please let us know. Contact the office, or Alison Nelson at crnasn@shentel.net or 984-3746. A collection box will be in the Narthex until today, February 3.

Preschool News for February

The children are very excited about our new unit for this month, "Healthy Hearts, Healthy Bodies". We are starting the unit talking about our hearts, what the heart does, and how we can keep it healthy by exercising and eating good foods. We will also be talking about our bones, our five senses, the healthy foods, and dental care. The children will have opportunities to explore and talk about measuring temperature, length, and weight. We will discuss the letters H, O, X, and V.

Masterworks Chorus

The Masterworks Chorus is looking for individuals to share their vocal talents for the upcoming Spring season of concerts. A simple audition with Artistic Director, Scott Zane Smith, and a commitment to hard work is all that is needed to become part of a wonderful cache of choral vocalists.

Rehearsals begin: Monday, February 4 at 7:00 pm at Emanuel Lutheran Church 127 E. High Street, Woodstock, VA 22664.

For more information visit us at <http://www.masterworkschorus.net/> or email us at svmasterworks@gmail.com
