News from The Children’s Church!

We have been learning a lot in Sunday School! This month the children are learning about Joseph. First, we learned how Jacob gave his favorite son a fancy coat of many colors and how his jealous brothers came to sell him into slavery. We made Joseph’s colorful coat out of pipe cleaners.

Then, we learned how Joseph’s God-given gift of interpreting dreams helped him predict 7 years of good crops followed by 7 years of famine. He was put in charge of making preparations for the coming famine. We had a relay race to see which team could carry grain (rice) on a spoon and fill up our granaries (bowls) the quickest.

This week, the children will read what happens when Joseph and his brothers are reunited in Egypt. In the following month, we will learn about Samson, Naomi and Ruth, Samuel, and David. I invite all to bring your little ones to join in our Bible fun in Sunday School!

Book Study Group

Ann Grisdale and I are undertaking a study of the book, Mere Christianity, by C. S. Lewis.

Mere Christianity is described in Wikipedia as, “..a theological book, adapted from a series of BBC radio talks made between 1941 and 1944, while Lewis was at Oxford during the Second World War. Considered a classic of Christian apologetics, the transcripts of the broadcasts originally appeared in print as three separate pamphlets: The Case for Christianity (Broadcast Talks in the UK) (1942), Christian Behaviour (1943), and Beyond Personality (1944). Lewis was invited to give the talks by James Welch, the BBC Director of Religious Broadcasting...”

C. S. Lewis, an Anglican, intended to describe the Christian common ground. In Mere Christianity, he aims at avoiding controversies to explain fundamental teachings of Christianity, for the sake of those basically educated as well as the intellectuals of his generation, for whom the jargon of formal Christian theology did not retain its original meaning.”

We will be using the Mere Christianity Study Guide, by Steve Urban, available from Amazon.

We plan to begin on Thursday, October 24th. We will meet for about an hour at the Wilson home, (590 Sherman Road, Woodstock,) at 2:00 p.m. Please join us if you are interested. Our plan is to discuss the introduction and Book 1: chapters 1 & 2 on the 24th, and to meet every two weeks until we complete the book.

Blessings, Joan Wilson

An Invitation to Families to Experience Communion Together

We believe that children learn of worship, and so of the love of God and community, by being in worship.

On Nov 3, the Moment with Children will occur later in the service. Children in the nursery ages 2 and above will be invited to sit with their families for the remainder of worship, including the Lord's Supper.

We fully anticipate the congregational experience to generate curiosity and questions.

Please feel free to reach out to Pastor Kate if needed: katerascoe@yahoo.com, 757-617-5374.

The Santa Train is Coming!

All Aboard! We are asking for donations of NEW hats, mittens, gloves, scarves, socks and throws/blankets, for the Appalachian Santa Train. Since 1943 the train has distributed clothing, toys and food to the children, who live in mining areas. To participate simply bring in your donations and place them on/or under the mitten tree that will be in the Fellowship Hall starting next week. Collections will be received until November 10.

Now Ordering Presbyterian Men and Women T- Shirts

The front of the shirt says WOODSTOCK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. The back of the shirt is the Mission Statement presented to the Men at our second meeting, January 18, 2004 and approved on March 21, 2004. We have worn the T-shirts at the pork tenderloin and spaghetti dinners; it is a good way for visitors to identify staff members.

If you would like a shirt, please let me know your size and if you want printing on both sides or just the front; The price is $9.75 if you want writing on both sides. If you just want the front (Woodstock Presbyterian Church) the price is $8.75. When I get a list of those ordering the shirts, I will collect (check) from you. Cabin Hill T's will not charge us a set-up fee if we order 12 or more shirts.

Blessings, Hal Ladehoff

Halloween Care Packages

Today is the final day for collecting! We will be sending Halloween “Care Packages” to our 4 WPC young people who are in military service or college. We are asking donations of individually wrapped cookies, snack items, granola bars, candy & packets of hot chocolate. The packages will be sent to David Grisdale, who is deployed to Afghanistan, Anna Everhart, Ashley Everhart and Whitney Good, who are in college/graduate school. Did we miss a WPC family member, who are in the military or school? Let us know by calling the office at 459-2646, or Alison Nelson 984-3746, crnasn@shentel.net .

Free Movie!

Shenandoah Alliance for Shelter will be sponsoring a free movie titled "The Public" on November 3, 2019 at 2:30 p.m. Please come join us to help end or shorten the length of time households experience homelessness.

National Hunger and Homelessness week is the week of their Empty Bowl supper on November 22, 2019. Its a great movie on homelessness and the many barriers they face and the diversity of the population of homelessness. Hope to see you there!
